The Akillian Gallery at Massasoit's Canton campus is showing work by Charles Lanphear of Easton, in a solo exhibition titled "Retrospective". Thirty-two works are on exhibit August 11 – September 14.

Charles has been drawing and painting for over 50 years. A retired Air Traffic Controller for the past 20 years, he devotes much of his time expanding his creative spirit and focusing on quality using many different mediums. Charles has received most of his formal training at Massachusetts College of Art, Massasoit Community College, as well as many area workshops. Focus for the last several years has been themes of music and its makers. Charles' work has been on exhibit throughout New England, both group and solo shows.

Please join us for the artist's reception August 24, 5:00 PM – 7:00 PM. Akillian Gallery, Massasoit Community College, 900 Randolph St., Canton MA. Gallery hours are Monday – Friday, 10 AM to 4 PM, or by appointment. Call 508-588-1900, ext. 2124 (in Canton) www.massasoit.edu/akilliangallery
