2012 National Women's History Month Theme: Women's Education – Women's Empowerment

Massasoit's Annual Women's History Month Exhibition

The Women's Resource Center and the Akillian Gallery are pleased to present this exhibition by Massasoit Staff, Faculty & Students in recognition of National Women's History Month. Examples of our talented college community include Painting, Photography, Pottery, Printmaking, Sculpture, and Textiles.

Brown Bag Opening Reception

Thursday, March 1st, 11:30am - 1:00pm

Desserts served.

On view during the reception only:

The first showing of a folio of 47 monoprints by Roberta Walsh.

Gallery Talk

Noon to 12:15 by MCC Prof. Christina Bermingham

Join us for a brief presentation focused on one of the works displayed, a mixed media portrait of Adrienne Rich by acclaimed international artist Martina Hynan, graciously on loan to this exhibition from Prof. Bermingham's private collection. Hear about the artist, the subject, and the common thread that connects them.

Show dates: February 29 - March 20, 2012

Gallery Hours: Mon.-Fri. 10:00-2:00 or by appointment. Hours may be restricted due to campus events. For more information call 781-821-2222, ext. 2124
